OFFICES: Quality Matters

- Reinforce your brand and your commitment to employees' well-being.
- Aesthetically pleasing, sustainable, high-quality fixtures convey a sense of worth.
- Integrate with shelving and other office storage solutions.

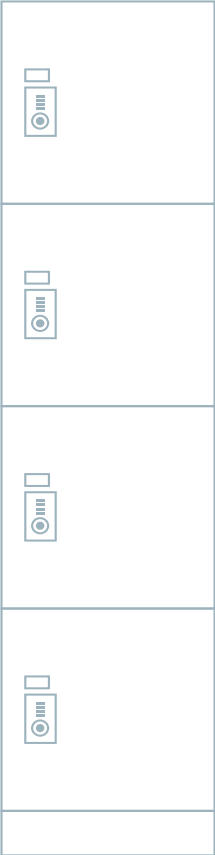

Some employees need to store insulin or other refrigerated medications at work. To accommodate this need, Spacesaver can create perforated day use lockers for small refrigeration units. In this open office, the perforated lockers were designed to blend in seamlessly with other day use lockers, and they're conveniently located near the office's cafe and kitchen areas.
